

The Examiner
SAN FRANCISCO
Since 1865

TUESDAY
JULY 18, 2006

examiner.com

Tuesday, July 18, 2006

examiner.com

TODAY'S NEWSMAKERS

Newsom

'BNE'

Mayor Gavin Newsom announced Monday a $2,500 reward for information leading to the arrest of the people responsible for putting stickers with the letters "BNE" on city property. This is the first time The City has offered a cash reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those who have vandalized city property.

BONNIE ORA SHERK

The Living Library founder is to become one of 15 who sit on The City's Urban Forestry Council. In the 1990s, Sherk, a landscape architect and artist, founded the nonprofit Living Library program, which "greens" up neighborhoods by planting trees and gardens. Her work can be seen in the Mission, Bernal Heights, Glen Park and the Excelsior neighborhoods.

Sherk